MILLIS TO BE TRIED FRIDAY

Charged With Murder of Jesse Farrington.

Grand Jury Returned True Bill Yesterday Afternoon and Defendant Was Arraigned—Special Verdict of Sixty Men Ordered Summons—Mr. C. A. Hall Appointed To Defend Prisoner—Other Work In Superior Court Yesterday.

In Superior court the grand jury yesterday afternoon returned the indictment against Oliver Millis marked "a true bill," the charge being murder, and the defendant was soon thereafter arraigned in court. Mr. C. A. Hall was appointed to defend the defendant and the case was set for Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

When court convened there were sixty-two cases docketed and a large number were disposed of during the day. The case against Baxter Shemwell was left open until today, the defendant telegraphing that he would be here. The case against the Red C Oil Company was continued by consent. The case against R. F. Rice will be taken up this morning. Mr. Rice is charged with keeping a mad dog. The case against Harry and Julius Edwards, the charge being felon stealing, was continued and a capias ordered to issue. Will Long, colored, was arraigned on the charge of storebreaking, a verdict of not guilty being returned. Long, it was alleged, broke into a store in High Point in 1908. Since that time he has served a sentence on the Davidson roads. Eva Hall, colored, was convicted on the charge of retailing, judgment being continued. Tom Bangle was found guilty of carrying concealed weapons, being fined $35 and costs. R. B. Waddell, of High Point, who was convicted of obtaining money under false pretense at the December term and taxed with half the costs and required to refund the money, was required to pay the remainder of the money and costs. Robie Wright pleaded guilty to the charge of forcible trespass and judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

When court convened at 10 o'clock the grand jury was at once selected and sworn. Five jurors were excused. Two, D. A. Montsinger and W. N. Isely, were called and failed and a fine of $40 each was imposed and a capias ordered to issue.

Mr. E. J. Forney, of this city, was made foreman of the grand jury. The body is composed of the following: E. J. Forney, E. H. Hodgins, W. M. Vaughn, Robt. Apple, R. F. Peables, D. F. Garrett, W. J. Robertson, J. W. Elliott, W. T. Hanner, H. H. Layton, W. R. Jenkins, Jno. W. Geringer, J. O. Merris, M. S. Jeffreys, J. W. Fogleman, L. A. Apple, W. T. Kirkman, R. E. Montgomery.

The charge of Judge Daniels consumed nearly an hour, the court explaining the work of the grand jury in a clear and forcible manner. The people of the entire county are interested in the manner in which you shall discharge the duties devolving upon you, said Judge Daniels. You are sworn officers of the law and are expected to discharge your duty without fear, favor, or affection. Judge Daniels did not believe that the members of the jury lacked courage to do their duty, nor did he think the members would neglect their duty in order to favor anyone. However, such things do happen, he said, and it was incumbent on him to instruct them to look at every duty from a disinterested standpoint, showing neither favor nor malice. Overlooking the faults of people in everyday business life is a laudable thing, said the court, but from the standpoint of an officer it is a different proposition.

Referring to the Municipal and Recorder's courts of the county Judge Daniels stated that they were doing great good in that through them speedy justice is often administered and the work of the Superior courts greatly lessened. Continuing he said that no greater service could be done their country by the members of the grand jury than by making presentments against any offenders who had so far escaped the eyes of the officers of the law, those who break down the barriers that protect society.

Unless this is done you are encouraging crime, Judge Daniels said. Punishment is more for the purpose of deterring crime, by making those who would break the law fearful of the consequences, than to make the offender suffer. Crime is diminishing, said the court, as the people are becoming more intelligent and more religious. And therefore the laws are not so harsh as formerly, there being only four offenses in this state punishable by death. Judge Daniels declared that a man who has assisted in lynching a person is morally weakened and is rarely ever as good a citizen as he was formerly.

Referring to the work of investigating the county offices and institutions Judge Daniels said that it was human nature for officers to grow careless if there was no check upon them and it spurred them into a more conscientious performance of their duties. Then too it encourages the officers to have a good report made by the investigating committee. Judge Daniels closed with a brief but comprehensive outline of the duties devolving on the grand jury and the manner in which their investigations should be made.

MAUD POWELL TONIGHT.

Noted Woman Violinist At West Market Annex.

MISS PREYER ENTERTAINS.

Most Enjoyable Evening At Her Home on Summit Avenue.

Miss Myrtle Preyer was the hostess at a delightful entertainment last evening at her home on Summit avenue. The guest of honor was Miss Louise Wolfe, of New York City, at present visiting Mrs. Caesar Cone.

The house was hospitably thrown open for the enjoyment of the guests. Many pleasant games amused the company during the evening. Refreshments of cream, nabisco, punch, and candy were then served by Misses Mary Beall and Annie and Helen Preyer. The guests gathered around the piano and joined in singing a number of popular airs.

The reception was quite informal but that the young people thoroughly enjoyed themselves was plainly evident by the merry and jovial spirit of the occasion.

Negro Women Fight.

Last night shortly before 11 o'clock the police looked up Cora Martin and Mary Merritt, two negro women, on the charge of engaging in an affray. The mixup occurred on East Market street just beyond the railroad. The nightly dance had just broken up and the colored damsels before mentioned disputed as to which should be accompanied home by a "beau." They began by pulling hair in lively fashion while the remainder of the crowd cheered them on. When the police stepped up Cora had Mary flat on her back and was pounding away. The women will be given a hearing before Judge Eure this morning.

Died In Florida.

A message received yesterday by Mr. W. S. Lyon brought to the city the news of the death of Mrs. Andrew Caldwell at her home in Sanford, Fla., Saturday afternoon. She was a sister of Mr. J. W. Doak, of Guilford College, and was well known in Greensboro, having formerly lived here.

A punctured grafter now and then is relished by all honest men.

VIRGINIA BANK IS BURGLARIZED

Vault Entered by Robbers Yesterday.

Doors Blown Open With Nitro-glycerine and About $3,000 Taken—Citizens Aroused By Explosion Held Off At Point of Pistols While Work of Robbers Was Completed—Thought There Were Five Men.

Danville, Va., Feb. 27.—While the citizens were held at bay at the point of pistols, which were freely used, a band of bold highwaymen, in true Western style, early today robbed the Bank of Clover, at Clover, Va., getting away with three thousand dollars, which was all of the money that had been left in the vault of the institution. The crime is one of the most daring and high-handed that has been perpetrated in this section for many years. The bank robbers, who were only able to enter the vault after several terrific explosions, made a successful escape, though it is thought that their capture is only a matter of time.

Clover is situated in Halifax county, about forty miles east of here, on the Richmond division of the Southern Railway. The Bank of Clover is situated on the principal street of the town, which has a population of about five hundred people.

This morning between 1 and 2 o'clock, W. J. Finch, who resides opposite the bank building, was aroused by a terrific explosion. He quickly got up and dressed, and in the meantime two other explosions were heard. He started to the bank building and saw the forms of two men standing in front of the structure and two or three men moving about behind the counter in the building. Before Mr. Finch crossed the street, the two men in front of the building fired one time each at him, the bullets flying wide of their mark. When the pistols flashed, he was able to see by the light that they were white men, but will not be able to definitely identify them. It is thought that five men were implicated in the robbery and that three of them left Clover in a buggy, while the other two made their escape by foot, walking along the railroad track. Two suspicious looking men were seen walking along the railroad track a short time after the robbery had been completed.

The Bank of Clover is a successful financial institution and was organized about five years ago. The losses from the robbery are completely covered by a burglar insurance.

Bloodhounds were hurried to the scene and there is but little doubt but the robbers will be caught.

JUDGMENT FOR NEWSOM

Required To Pay Fine of Fifty Dollars and Also Settle Brooks' Doctor Bill.

In Municipal court yesterday morning Alfred Newsom, the white man who on Saturday was found guilty of engaging in an assault in which a deadly weapon was used, was fined $50 and costs, and also required to pay to Dr. Waddy, the physician who attended George Brooks, who was shot by Newsom, $25. The total amount was about $80 and the money was promptly paid. There was also a case charging Newsom with carrying a concealed weapon, but prayer for judgment was continued.

Charles Carmack was fined $10 and costs for carrying a concealed weapon, this case having been sent up from Justice Collins' court.

NOT SPECIALLY SIGNIFICANT

Those Surveying Operations on North Elm Street Yesterday.

Some survey work going on on North Elm street yesterday led to the inference on the part of several people who noticed it that the Public Service Company was planning an extension of its lines in that direction. General Manager E. C. Deal was interrogated on this point and stated that the surveying operations were merely to complete the company's records and had no significance further than that the company was considering an extension in a northerly direction along with possible extensions in other directions.

The Judge sits on the Bench, and yet sometimes he is obliged to "sit on" the jury.

Murderer Was Arraigned Yesterday.

Grand Jury Returned True Bill Without Delay—Pleaded Not Guilty. When Arraigned—Preliminary Hearing Before Justice Collins Yesterday Morning—Own Children Placed On Stand—Hudson & Swift Counsel For Defense.

In Guilford Superior court yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock Moses Speaks was arraigned on the charge of murder. He arose and stood motionless with his right hand uplifted while Solicitor Gattis read the bills of indictment, there being two cases against him. He pleaded not guilty to the charge. The cases were continued until the April term of criminal court, to convene on April 3. Messrs. Hudson and Swift were appointed as counsel to represent the defense.

The bill of indictment went to the grand jury soon after that body was organized yesterday morning and it required only a short while to investigate the case and return the indictment marked "a true bill."

Preliminary Hearing.

Before Justice of the Peace D. H. Collins yesterday morning at 10 o'clock Speaks was given a preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering his wife, Fannie Speaks, and his son-in-law, William Miller. As a result of the investigation Justice Collins held Speaks without bail to await the action of the grand jury. County Attorney J. N. Wilson prosecuted.

Only two witnesses were examined in the case charging the defendant with the murder of his wife, Franklin, James Harvey and Elza Speaks, sons of the defendant, were sworn as witnesses. The latter two are about nine and eleven years of age, while Franklin and Isham are about nineteen and sixteen years, respectively. It was a touching sight to see and hear the testimony of the boys on the stand. While it was evident that they still loved their father it was easy to see that their mother had received the greater portion of their affection. The boys seemed somewhat reluctant to testify against their father, but love for the mother predominated and they bravely told of the abuses the mother had received at the hands of their father and of his threats that Mrs. Speaks would get her rights. Isham saw his father kill Mrs. Speaks.

Only the afternoon before the murder Speaks had quarreled with his wife because she would not give some money belonging to one of the boys. He had flourished the butcher knife, which he had carried in his vest pocket for several months—to protect himself with, he said. The next morning he had gotten up and quarreled with his wife and left the house, being absent nearly half an hour. When he returned he never spoke but marched up to Mrs. Speaks, who was busy with breakfast, seized and lifted her left arm and thrust the knife deep into her side several times. Without a word he hurried out.

Mrs. William Miller, wife of the murdered man and a daughter of Speaks, testified to the killing of her husband. She stated that Miller had not gotten up when "Paw" (Speaks) came to their house. He had walked in and said "good morning Mr. Miller." Miller got up and walked into the kitchen to put on his shoes. Speaks followed, with Mrs. Miller in the rear. As Miller was well inside the room Speaks jumped forward with the fury of a maniac and thrust the knife into Miller's side several times before Mrs. Miller's eyes. Without a word he turned and ran in the direction of home.

Speaks was in court and looked on as unconcerned as if he was witnessing a show. He was represented by Hudson & Swift and once or twice he conferred with his counsel during the hearing. He still wears a bandage about his head to cover the wound inflicted by his captors. The prisoner appeared to rejoice over the hesitation of his children when they were placed on the stand to testify against him.

Permit For Cottage.

Building Inspector R. H. Milton yesterday issued a permit to Ida Richmond, colored, for the erection of a cottage on Birch street. The estimated costs is $700.

URGES CO-OPERATION.

Secretary McLean Says Greensboro People Should Unite in Giving U. C. T.s Royal Time.

Editor Telegram: Greensboro has entertained many large and notable conventions, but at no time has she had an opportunity of entertaining a body of men who afterwards would do as much to advertise our city as she will have when the Grand Council of the U. C. T.s of North and South Carolina meets here June the 2d and 3d. The local council of the U. C. T.s are making preparations to give these visitors a royal time, and the Chamber of Commerce is going to co-operate with them. There will be large delegations in addition to the official delegates. We understand that Charlotte expects to send several hundred and in all there will probably be fifteen hundred or two thousand traveling men here during these two days. The traveling men are the greatest boosters on earth. Their business takes them from one end of the continent to the other. They have in the past done much to advertise our city, and their meeting here at this time gives us an opportunity to make a favorable impression upon them. The traveling man of today is a high class citizen, a man of character and resource, and it is a compliment and an honor to our city to have them hold their annual session here.

Joint committees from the U. C. T.s and the Chamber of Commerce will call upon the business people for contributions to defray the necessary expenses incident to entertaining this body, and we trust that our people will realize the importance of this meeting and co-operate with our committees to the fullest extent in making this the best convention ever held by this body of traveling men.

C. C. McLEAN,
Secretary Chamber of Commerce.

THE REVIVAL CONTINUES WITH INCREASED INTEREST.

Services At Christian Church This Afternoon and Tonight—Three Professions Last Night—Sunday Services.

The interest in the revival services being held at the Christian church is steadily increasing. There were three professions of conversion at the close of last night's service, making eight professions during the meeting. The pastor preached an excellent sermon and the singing was full of vigor and tended to increase the air of spirituality which pervaded the service. The church was filled to its capacity.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock a service will be held in order to accommodate those who do not find it convenient to attend the night service. Mr. and Mrs. Butler will sing at this service and at all other services. Services again tonight at 7:30. The public is cordially invited to attend all services.

Three services were held Sunday, the capacity of the church being taxed to accommodate the congregations. At the night service every seat was filled and several hundred chairs were pressed into service in order to seat the congregation. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a special meeting for men was held, the pastor preaching a most helpful sermon from the text "For What is Your Life," James 4:14. Mr. and Mrs. Butler sang and the men were visibly affected.

The singing of Mr. and Mrs. Butler is adding considerably to the meeting. They not only have charge of the singing, but sing several solos at each service. The song service which precedes the sermon is of a most helpful and uplifting nature as is the after song service also.

FOUR HUNDRED BILLS IN HOUSE

And a Number to Come From Senate.

Speaker Dowd Urges Members to Work in Systematic Way So the Entire Calendar Can Be Cleared—The Mileage Bill Discussed In Senate—Greensboro School Bond Issue Validated—The Pension Bill.

Raleigh, Feb. 27.—When the House convened today Speaker Dowd announced to the members that there are 403 bills on the calendar besides forty-seven messages conveying bills from the Senate, twenty-nine second reading roll-call bills and thirty three third reading roll-call bills and a large number still to be reported today. He cautioned members against getting nervous and begged them to let business proceed in an orderly way as only in this way could the work be accomplished during the remaining days of the session. But with order and proper system he believed the calendar could be cleared and every bill given its hearing and opportunity to pass.

Representative Kirkman introduced a bill to amend the charter of Greensboro Female College.

The Senate.

The committee on railroads reported a substitute for Senator Baggett's bill requiring railroads to pull mileage on trains, the substitute providing that railroads shall keep open two windows at all stations in town and cities having a population of 2,000 or over, one window for selling tickets and the other exclusively for exchanging mileage for tickets; also requiring two windows to be kept open at the junctions Dunn, Hamlet, Norlina, Sanford and Maxton, irrespective of the population of these places. After much discussion the consideration was continued until Wednesday.

On motion of Senator Martin, of Buncombe, his bill to establish a training school for teachers in Western North Carolina was made special order for Tuesday at 11 o'clock.

Senator Boyden called attention to the pension bill and said he was going to insist on its consideration Tuesday. It was made special order for 1:30 o'clock Tuesday.

Senator Brown, chairman of the finance committee, served notice that the revenue and machinery act must be taken up Tuesday.

Among the bills ratified was the one to legalize the $30,000 school bond issue of Greensboro.

THE MUNICIPAL COURT

Grand Jury Would Have Its Jurisdiction Extended To Embrace All of County Except High Point Township.

The following telegram was sent yesterday by the grand jury of the present term of criminal court to Senator Hobbins and Representatives Kirkman and Dillard, the Guilford delegation in the Legislature:

"You can serve Guilford county by extending the jurisdiction of the Greensboro Recorder's Court to embrace every township except High Point."

WORKING WOMEN

Here is a Helping Hand—A Newton Woman's Experience.

You know just how it is yourself—when you are tired out, perhaps a little run-down, and hardly able to drag around, life is a burden, you are irritable, nervous, depressed and every little task seems like a mountain.

Miss Katharine Burns, of Newton, Mass., says—"About six months ago I was in a run-down condition and my blood was very poor. I had taken several medicines prescribed by physicians, but they seemed to do me no good. Finally Vinol was recommended and from the first bottle I noticed a great improvement. I have taken six bottles and I feel as well as ever, and I would recommend Vinol to anybody needing a good tonic to build them up and make them strong." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

We want to ask every woman who finds herself in this condition to try Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not help them.

We know Vinol will create an appetite, aid digestion, make pure, rich blood, and in this way build up and strengthen the run-down, overworked nervous system. You take no chances. Try it. Fariss-Klutzn Drug Company, Greensboro, N. C.

AFTER-SCHOOL CLUB EDUCATION

It Helps The Parent as Well as The Child.

Atlanta Constitution. The betterment of the home and the bringing together more closely of the school and the home, are principles now which are not only influences hopefully evident in modern educational systems, but organizations having these same principles as their basic purpose. Schools for "grown-ups" are being organized in various ways both in the cities and in the rural communities. The great universities are fostering the same movement in their extension work, and there seems a place and a need for each succeeding movement along these lines.

The After-School Club of America with headquarters in Philadelphia, is an organization sending a good message out and sending it in organized, tangible form. Its principle is to educate; to help along the parent and the child at the same time, and to take the teacher in the compact. Literature bearing on matters related to the movement is diffused, correspondence between the members of the After-School Club and the heads of it, encouraged, and finally opportunities for acquirement of the best reading matter on various subjects, made possible for a reasonable expenditure.

The advisory board of the club in its home department includes Jane Addams, of Hull House; Mrs. Shepherd Barham, Los Angeles, president department of School Patrons' National Educational Association; Mrs. Edward W. Biddle, Carlisle, Pa., president State Federation of Pennsylvania Women; Miss Jane Brownlee, New York, lecturer and author of Moral Education; Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, Denver, former president General Federation of Women's Clubs; Miss Laura Drake Gill, Boston, president Association of Collegiate Alumnae; Miss Patty S. Hill, New York, Teachers' College, Columbia University; Mrs. Robert M. La Follette, Madison, Wis., editor home education department La Follette's Magazine; Mrs. Philip N. Moore, St. Louis, president General Federation Women's Clubs; Mrs. E. R. Weeks, Kansas City, president Mothers' Union; Mrs. Owen Wister, Philadelphia, chairman Pennsylvania civic committee; Miss Mary E. Woolley, South Hadley, Mass., president Mount Holyoke College; Miss Sophie B. Wright, New Orleans, principal Home Institute.

The Letter Department. In explaining the letter department Mr. Myers, the organization manager of the institution, states:

"The most distinctive feature of the movement is a series of personal comradeship letters which are written by Mr. Nathaniel M. Dawson to boys and girls. 'Uncle Nat,' as he is called by the little men and women members of the club, writes very personal letters which are designed to develop the child's desires and queries, and to help him form ideals and ambitions. Since one of the events in a child's life is the arrival of a letter which is his very own, you can readily imagine the influence on a boy or girl of a fortnightly letter from a grown person of lofty ideals who instinctively reaches the child's own plane of thought and interest. Uncle Nat's letters to children and young people about fairies, birds, music, art, wonders of science and nature, animals, sports, ambitions, characters in history, etc., are stimulating character builders. His letters to boys are written to meet a boy's point of view; the letters to girls show the more delicate feminine view-point, but both without exaggeration of sex differences. Mr. Dawson lays hold of every fact supplied by the parents, and supplements it with the revelations the children make of themselves in their own letters. He then deduces a systematic plan leading the child into such use of books as will strengthen the weak places in his taste, giving him direction in handicraft, in school work and in social life, as may seem best, and developing his love for animal life and the wonders of nature."

Affiliated Societies.

The societies with which the After-School Club is either officially affiliated or working in sympathetic co-operation, are: American Academy of Political and Social Science, American Association for Labor Legislation, American Civic Association, American Home Economic Association, American Institute of Social Service, Big Brothers Movement, Chicago School of Civics, Child Conference for Research and Welfare, the Character Development League, Columbia University (Teachers' College), Clark University, department of child study; Federated Boys' Clubs, the George Junior Republic Association, International Children's School Farm League, and National Anti-Cigarette League, National Association for the study and education of Exceptional Children, National Child Labor Committee, National Christian League for the Promotion of Purity, University of Wisconsin, the Washington Society of Fine Arts, National Bureau of Education, National Municipal League, National Newsboys' Association, National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education, National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Philadelphia Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Philadelphia League of Home and School Associations, the People's Institute, Russell Sage Foundation, department of child helping; Russell Sage Foundation, department of child hygiene; Society of Arts and Crafts, Southern Association of College Women, the Vocation Bureau.

Backache, Rheumatism, Sleeplessness. Result from disordered kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills have helped others, they will help you. Mrs. J. B. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., says: "For a long time I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism. I had severe backaches and felt all played out. After taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Pills my backache is gone and where I used to lie awake with rheumatic pains I now sleep in comfort. Foley's Kidney Pills did wonderful things for me." An Important Law Case

By CARL SARGENT CHASE

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

Driving lazily along a country road, I saw ahead of me an old man and a girl running as for dear life. Hastening my pace, I came up with them. They turned, with despair in their faces. The girl clasped her hands, assuming a posture of entreaty, and began a number of incoherent sentences.

"I beseech you not to take him back. He will really go mad if you shut him up again in that terrible place. Let us go on and say you couldn't find us." The girl begging for the old man's liberty was so beautifully feminine that had she not also moved my sympathies I might have let her go on begging for some time longer. As it was I stopped her.

"You are losing valuable time. I am not your pursuer, and if any one is after you you'd better tell me about it in few words. If you need help I will help you."

The change on her countenance from despair to hope was even more winning than her expression of supplication. She told me that her grandfather—the man who was with her—was very rich; that his nephew in order to secure possession of his property had secured his incarceration in a lunatic asylum; that she had been admitted to see him and had surreptitiously taken him away. They were sure when they heard the wheels of my buggy that I was coming to take the old man back to the asylum.

I had no doubt from the girl's story the old man was a lunatic who had persuaded his granddaughter that he was of sound mind and was being persecuted for his estate. There was certainly nothing of the millionaire in his appearance, and he had probably imagined the story of her wealth—or, rather, it was a part of his lunacy. Nevertheless I was so attracted to the girl that I resolved to get the couple away from the asylum authorities long enough to look into the case.

An exclamation of terror from the girl attracted my attention, and, looking behind me, I saw a horse and buggy coming at a brisk trot. I took the couple into my wagon, but did not make an attempt at flight, jogging along at a quiet gait.

"Oh, heavens!" exclaimed the girl. "We will be taken. Do go faster." "Not without my knowing just why," I replied. "I promise you to interest myself in your case and if your grandfather is improperly confined to move heaven and earth to accomplish his release."

The pursuer, an official of the lunatic asylum, soon overhauled us. He told me that the old man was a patient at the asylum and he wanted him. I invited him to continue with us into the city toward which we were going, promising to hold the patient for him in order that the asylum authorities might substantiate their legal claim to him. He could only accept the terms, and I drove on, he following.

On reaching the city I pulled up at the office of my attorney, and we all went in together. By my action I had won the confidence of not only the runaways, but the asylum official, and a compromise was effected by which the former should remain in my keeping while the lawyer investigated the case. Since I lived with my mother in a house plenty large enough for all of us this was a very satisfactory arrangement, enabling me to be constantly with the girl, whose sweetness and devotion to her grandfather won me completely.

At the end of a week my lawyer told me that he had unearthed what he believed to be one of the most nefarious plots he had ever encountered. The old man, Jonathan Gooding, possessed an immense fortune. Being without wife or children, he had taken his granddaughter Grace to live with him when she was a little girl and had made a will bequeathing her his fortune. His nephew, a man of forty-five and a lawyer, had known what legal steps to take to secure the old man's removal to the asylum and had managed the matter very adroitly, his plan being at his uncle's demise to secure distribution of his estate among his heirs, which would give the nephew the lion's share.

Fortunately I was possessed of sufficient property to advance what money was necessary to a thorough legal investigation of the case. A long suit followed, during which Mr. Gooding was committed to a private sanitarium. That his granddaughter was devoted to him on account of her affection for him became apparent from a test I made. I told her that the case could be settled and her grandfather free if she would relinquish all claim to his estate. The lighting of her face as she replied that she would gladly do so was delightful to look upon.

I confessed that I had only been testing the disinterestedness of her affection for her grandfather and assured her that we would be able to keep him out of a madhouse without her surrendering any of her rights.

My whole being becoming absorbed in Grace Gooding, I made her cause my chief business. Notwithstanding my efforts I came very near being beaten, but by dint of perseverance and using the best legal talent I finally established not only Mr. Gooding's sanity, but his perfect fitness to make a will. I married his granddaughter, but arranged with Mr. Gooding that he should leave the bulk of his property to charity.

There are only a few more days left for legislators to take stock of their campaign pledges and decide how they are to be disposed of.

At this writing it seems that the near-beer saloons will have only to turn their joints into clubs with locker privileges.

It was first proposed to construct at Raleigh a new administration building at a cost of $1,000,000; after much speech-making and careful deliberation, it was decided to expend for this purpose only $500,000; now it is decided that the State cannot afford more than $250,000 for the building. This may be the part of wisdom. But it does seem that, in the course of a few years a large and more costly building will have to be erected, it would be very much more economical to do it now rather than pay $250,000 for a makeshift.

The bill introduced by Senator Cartwright for the establishment of a school for the feeble-minded is a meritorious and humane measure, and should, by all means, be passed without opposition. There are in most communities young men and women who are willing to work, but, because of mental disability and undeveloped faculties, they are but a charge on the public or parents and relatives. The public schools cannot aid them, and without an institution where they can be placed in charge and under the care of trained experts, there is no hope for them ever to become of any service to the world.

The Pope has decreed that women wearing the harem outfit will be barred from the rites of the Catholic church; even in Paris, a woman who appeared in public wearing the pantaloons-skirt was pelted with rotten eggs; and on the Brooklyn bridge traffic was blocked by the crowds flocking to view the first appearance of this bifurcated garb in the Metropolis. But in spite of mere man and his fun-making proclivities, as well as the criticisms of the more serious ones in authority, if Paris and the women stand pat the world will have to endure. When woman once makes up her mind, why, even fagots and the rack have less terrors for her than the consciousness of a shackled will.

As has been stated in the local columns, Mr. J. T. Fain, formerly of Anniston, Ala., takes charge of The Telegram after today's issue. In the course of a few days he will be joined in the ownership and management of the paper by Mr. H. G. Braxton, of Birmingham. The writer most cordially commends Mr. Fain and Mr. Braxton to the people of Greensboro and as cordially commends the people of Greensboro to Mr. Fain and Mr. Braxton. Our own experience here, we will say for the benefit and information of those gentlemen, has been most agreeable and we take this occasion to express our warm appreciation of the support which has been accorded the paper under our management.

The Code Commission passes over to the Nevada Legislature an act for its consideration which provides that a person convicted of a capital offence may elect to die by the gallows or by taking hydrocyanic acid. The reason for prescribing this particular poison is that one drop placed on the tip of the tongue will produce instant death. The act, in fact, prescribes suicide, since the poison is to be handed to the prisoner by a physician, with instructions for taking. It will further teach those weak-willed ones who contemplate self-destruction just how to get to an unknown destination by the shortest route and by the least painful method. Nevada has given to the world a new interpretation of the Declaration of Independence, and has likewise shown that a free people, ever striving onward and upward towards the glorious light of liberty, may enact strange, unconventional, and ultra outre laws and yet be quite within the American Constitution.

H. G. BRAXTON ACQUIRES AN INTEREST IN TELEGRAM.

Announcement was made yesterday by J. T. Fain, the new owner of The Telegram, who will take charge of the paper Wednesday, that an interest in the business had been sold to H. G. Braxton, of Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Braxton will come to Greensboro about March 10th and will have charge of the circulation and business departments of The Telegram. He will be accompanied to this city by his family.

Mr. Braxton is a native of Virginia, but has been a resident of Birmingham for many years and was formerly business manager of the News, the leading afternoon newspaper of that city. His business connection with the News began at the age of seventeen years, when he was made circulation manager. This position he filled for twelve years, increasing the News' circulation from 2,300 to 23,000 daily. He was then made business manager and filled the position with signal ability for several years, voluntarily retiring to engage in another line of business.

Mr. Braxton received his newspaper training under the direction of the late Gen. Rufus N. Rhodes, the proprietor of the News and one of the most successful newspaper publishers the South has ever produced. He is a gentleman and business man of the highest type, and his acquisition by Greensboro as a citizen is worthy of more than passing mention.

A WORD FOR THE CHILDREN.

General Carr says that he is perhaps the largest employer of labor in North Carolina, and yet he stands for humanity, as against the power of the dollar, and pleads for the women and children employed in factories in North Carolina.

Gen. Carr may be in a losing fight, at least for the present, because the State is not awake to the cry of those boys and girls who are without ability or opportunity to speak for themselves in public assemblages, and because those most familiar with their conditions are, as a rule, their employers, who plead that if the children are not employed they will be brought up in idleness and placed on the road to crime. This is an argument unworthy of humane men, but it has had its weight. Children under fourteen years of age should be employed in three ways: in the school room, at play in the open air, and in assisting parents and other grown people during spare hours, at useful and practical work, where restriction is not such as will stifle spontaneity and the naturalness and individuality of the child. Long hours of labor would be unjust to the young, even if performed in the open air; and when it is required of them within closed buildings, and where there are few and, in most cases, no, educational advantages, it is a sin against both nature and nature's God.

We are very much more careful in the rearing of stock than we are in the making of strong, healthy, and vigorous men and women; and until we awake fully to the needs of the children who are in the formative period of life, we cannot rightfully boast of a high order of civilization.

Lots of people take an interest in life who are absolutely lacking in principle.

$100 Reward, $500.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Guilford's Roads the Best in the State.

Charlotte Chronicle.
On several occasions recently, the Greensboro papers have boasted that the roads in Guilford county are the best in the State. The claim cannot be challenged. The asphalt finish Guilford has given the road between Greensboro and High Point, is the treatment the macadam roads in Mecklenburg should be receiving. Mecklenburg has the greatest number of miles, but Guilford has the best class of roads.

No man can get to the front without a certain amount of backbone.

MR. A. W. COOKE PRESENTS BANNER

Rockingham Democracy Rewarded For Fine Showing Made Last Fall—Large Crowd Hears Speech.

A large crowd was at Wentworth, Rockingham county, yesterday attending court and to take part in the formal presentation of the banner won by Rockingham Democracy for the largest increase of the Democratic vote at the past November election of any county in the Fifth Congressional district. The banner is a handsome silken one with an inscription in beautiful gold letters as follows:

"1910, Rockingham, the Banner County. Presented by the Democracy of the Fifth Congressional District."

The exercises were held in the court house after court adjourned for dinner. C. O. McMichael, Esq., presided over the meeting and stated that in the absence of Chairman Young he, as a member of the central executive committee, had been requested to call the meeting to order. After briefly reviewing the great Democratic victory in the county he introduced Hon. A. Wayland Cooke, of Greensboro, chairman of the Fifth District Democratic executive committee.

Mr. Cooke said:

"Gentlemen and Fellow Citizens: I feel that I am in the midst of a great people today. Not alone is this county noted for its fertile fields and broad acres where intensive farming is brought nearest to perfection, where the early morning is ushered in by the signal of the factory whistle, and where, as the days wear on you hear the school bells linked in one unbroken sound from this spot to its uttermost boundaries; not alone for its beautiful hills and valleys and rolling landscape reflecting alike its beauty and strength. It is also noted for its proud traditions and for its magnificent history; for the great men who have shed lustre upon its fame; and marvellously distinguished for the high character of its average man.

"A country is not rich because it contains a few very rich men; it is not healthy because it contains a few very strong men; it is not intelligent because it contains a few very learned men, nor is a county of good morals, because it contains a few good women;—if the remainder of the population are not in good circumstances, are not healthy, are not intelligent, and are not of good morals. A county is judged by the character of its average man, and judged by this standard, it is doubtful if Rockingham is surpassed by any county in the State.

"Among a strong, stalwart, brave and courageous people a righteous cause will triumph when they are properly aroused to a sense of their obligations. To them victory comes as a beautiful white bird and perches upon their banner in commemoration of a good fight well fought.

"Whenever a people rise up in their might and perform some great task, confer some great benefit upon mankind, upon a nation, upon a State, or upon a community, in a great crusade for a righteous cause, or for the promulgation of great principles in the name of a great party, some token should be publicly delivered to them, not as a reward, but as a symbol of the gratitude in which they are held by their fellowmen, and in commemoration of their victory.

"I am therefore commissioned by the Democracy of the Fifth Congressional district to present to you this banner, given to the county making the largest gains in the last election. Its intrinsic value is not great, but with it I also deliver to you, though subtle and unseen, yet nevertheless known, acknowledged and felt by us all, the heartfelt thanks of the democracy of this district, its admiration, regard and esteem.

"I doubt that the campaign in any county in the State was so well organized and conducted as in Rockingham. You furnished a model and won the admiration and gratitude of the Democracy of the district. You planned early and you planned well and the execution of your plans and its results was a marvel to us all. Certainly nothing in our district was comparable to it. Your campaign demonstrated the value of close organization, great energy and intelligent direction, and you made a marked impression upon the people of the State.

"As chairman of the district I wish I could thank every man who took part in your great victory. I would feel recreant to my trust, however, if I did not make public acknowledgement of the untiring labor, intelligent management, and patriotic party loyalty and devotion of Mr. Wm. Young, your chairman, and Mr. John T. Oliver, your secretary. I do not believe better nor more efficient work has ever been done in any campaign in the State, than was done by them, nor has any county in normal times seen a more signal triumph.

"However, without an enthusiasm born of consciousness of right and without the fidelity of the rank and file of the Democrats, aroused to a sense of their responsibility, and without their loyalty and devotion to the cause of their party bearing aloft the standard of equal rights to all and special privileges to none, it would have been impossible.

"I desire also to thank Dr. George A. Mebane for his great service, his encouragement, his zeal and faithfulness in this fight. During one of the most bitterly contested nominations ever witnessed in the State, in which he was a central figure, he had at no time anything but kindness to say of anyone. No bitterness pervaded his soul. Even whilst the fight was being waged, he met his political opponents with such an open frank countenance, and splendid cordiality, that the memory of it lingers with many of them still, and after having yielded victory to Guilford's White-plumed Knight, he sulked not, but even on his return to his home from the scene of another's triumph, raised the hue and cry, 'To your tents O Israel.'

"We have seen the storm clouds gather and rise above the horizon. We have heard the thunders roll and seen the lightnings flash, and then the silvery drops begin to fall upon the earth,—and often awhile the storm would roll away, and the rainbow of promise would come out in the sky. We have had stormy times, but I am glad to say that the lightnings have fallen on the crested helmets of the undimmed Democracy of Rockingham county and now I am glad that the elements have sought their level and Democracy has at last come into her own.

"In the words of the prophet 'Open the window Eastward.' Open to the morning. Open to the rising sun of Democracy, the triumph of truth, the resurrection of right, and the victory of nineteen hundred and twelve.

"In the name of the Democracy of the district I present to you this token of our gratitude."

The speech of acceptance was made by Secretary J. T. Oliver. Others who were called for and made felicitous speeches were A. D. Ivie, S. P. Graves, T. W. Hopkins, E. G. Sherrill, chairman of the Guilford County Democratic committee; E. H. Wrenn, J. E. Saintsing, H. R. Scott, P. W. Glidewell, M. L. Misener, J. M. Sharp, D. M. Moore, J. H. Bennett and T. S. Reid.

Hindu Juggling.

The Hindu jugglers and acrobats are the most skillful in the world. One of the latest stories told of them is about a performer who went through many wonderful feats perched on the top of a single bamboo stick about fifteen feet in height. The top of the stick was tied to a girdle around his waist, and a leg rest was provided by a cushion a few feet down the pole. Perched on this slender stick he hopped and danced about in the liveliest way, accompanied by the tapping of a drum. It would be considered a skillful feat to walk about with ease on a pair of stilts fifteen feet in height, but this Hindu showed a marvelous power of equilibrium on a single stick. He did other things even more wonderful. For example, he balanced a light stick on his nose and a heavy one on his chin and then threw the heavy one into the air with his head and caught it on the end of a light one. While balancing the two sticks thus, end on end, he made one revolve in one direction and the other in the opposite direction.

"Grey" and "Gray."

What is the difference, if any, between "grey" and "gray," aside from the matter of spelling?

The editor of the Oxford Dictionary some years ago made extended inquiry as to usage and found that opinions in London varied. Replies to his questions showed that in Great Britain the form grey is the more frequent in use, despite the authority of Dr. Johnson and later lexicographers, who give the preference to gray. Many correspondents said that they used the two forms with a difference of meaning or application, the distinction most generally recognized being that grey denotes a more delicate or lighter tint than gray. Others considered the difference to be that gray is a warmer color or that it has a mixture of red or brown. Another group held that grey has more of sentiment, gray more of color, which may mean that grey is a suggestion rather than a positive outline.—New York Press.

Tortured For 15 Years.

By a cure-defying stomach trouble that baffled doctors, and resisted all remedies he tried, John W. Modders, of Moddersville, Mich., seemed doomed. He had to sell his farm and give up work. His neighbors said, "he can't live much longer." "Whatever I ate distressed me," he wrote, "till I tried Electric Bitters, which worked such wonders for me that I can now eat things I could not take for years. Its surely a grand remedy for stomach trouble." Just as good for the liver and kidneys. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Do Ladies Know the Value of Money?

Some married men say they do not, but we think that ladies are better judges of values than men. A man is apt to buy from his friends or from men who belong to the same lodge or society, but ladies look the market over, and when they finally buy they usually get their money's worth. But due to the extensive credit system in vogue in this city, the ladies have not been getting good values. They have been compelled to pay more than the actual cash value for shoes.

Ladies. We Have a Surprise for You!

Our $3.50 shoes are as good as you have been in the habit of buying for $5.00. How is this possible? We are glad you asked the question, as we are glad of an opportunity of explaining why we sell a ladies' shoe for $3.50 equal to the $5.00 shoe sold in other stores who sell on credit. We buy direct from a manufacturer who makes 7,000 pairs of shoes every day. We buy for cash and get the benefit of the discount, and we do not sell any shoes to people who do not pay for them.

Just think of it! Wonderful, isn't it? The very latest models in Cravenette, Suede, Russia Calf, Gun Metal, Patent Kid, Vici Kid and Patent Pony Leather in button or lace, slant top, low, medium or high heels, with flexible soles, for $3.50 a pair.

Both trains to make all local intermediate stops.

These new trains will carry baggage car, two coaches and one Pullman Drawing-room Sleeping car, the sleeping car to be operated between Raleigh and Washington, being handled between Washington and Greensboro on trains No. 31 and 32. Twice Declined.

The invitation list of the governor general of Canada is made out strictly in accordance with precedent, but is not kept up to date always, the aid who has to send the invitations out—generally an Englishman or a Scotchman—not always being au courant with changes on the list. The late Sir Antoine Dorion, chief justice of Quebec, was once invited to some function, as was proper, but Lady Dorion, who was dead, was invited likewise. Sir Antoine accepted for himself, but declined for her ladyship, on the ground that she was in the cemetery. The next year, however, the same mistake was made, so the old judge wrote back to the aid-de-camp in waiting: "Sir Antoine Dorion accepts, etc., but, her ladyship being still in St. Anne's cemetery, Sir Antoine is compelled again to decline the invitation for her."

A New Game.

William is the only son of a pious minister, and, though he is only three and a half years of age, his father considers it quite time he learned properly to observe grace on coming to the table. His parents have more than once endeavored to explain to him the reasons for his so doing, but the little boy regards it as no more than an amusing game. The other afternoon his older sister made another attempt to interest him in this duty. All were seated at dinner, and on the first words of the grace William's small head dropped in his hands in apparent reverence. His sister, secretly pleased with her success, stole a glance at him, when, to the consternation of the family, he sprang up, shouting gleefully: "Oh, Sis, you're it! I saw you peep!"—Woman's Home Companion.

Life Saved at Death's Door.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Texas, as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me.

Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years." Quick safe, sure, its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup and all throat and lung troubles. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

GENERAL DUPONT'S GIFTS

State of Delaware to Have Boulevard 100 Miles Long.

New York Tribune.
Gen. T. Coleman DuPont, president of the DuPont Powder Company, of Delaware, confirmed last night at the Hotel Knickerbocker the report that he was ready to contribute $1,500,000 toward the cost of a boulevard the length of the State, from Claymont on the north to Selbyville on the south.

According to Gen. DuPont's scheme, the proposed roadway will be 100 feet wide and 100 miles long. It will be given outright to the people of Delaware.

It appears that Gen. DuPont's original proposition was to defray the cost of the work up to the amount of $1,000,000. This aroused some criticism and he finally decided to make his offer definite. So far as is known, this is the first offer of the kind ever made to any State in the Union.

SPEEDY RELIEF FROM KIDNEY TROUBLE.

"I had an acute attack of Bright's disease with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder and dizziness," says Mrs. Cora Thorp, Jackson, Mich. "A bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy overcame the attack, reduced the inflammation, took away the pain and made the bladder action normal. I wish everyone could know of this wonderful remedy." Howard Gardner.

"I see the fashionable shoes now come without tips," remarked Mrs. Wigwag, looking up from her paper. "Too bad the fashionable waiters can't come that way," murmured Mr. Wigwag, figuring up the dent the bill for the little midnight supper had put in his wad.

Wife Got Tip Top Advice.

MARK TWAIN

1/2 Price

A New Edition

Now for the first time you get a complete set of all Mark Twain's writings at just exactly one-half the price they have ever been sold before. This is a new edition, just as complete as the old one, which still sells, by the way, at $50.00. This new edition is only $25.00—for the 25 volumes.

It had been Mark Twain's ambition to have his books in every American home, and he made a great personal sacrifice to bring about this remarkable opportunity—for the first time in the history of publishing, copyrighted books are sold at the price of non-copyrighted books—the chance will not come again.

But for Mark Twain's action this would have been impossible. Never before has a copyrighted library set of a standard author's works been issued at such a low figure.

His Complete Works—25 Beautiful Volumes

Brander Matthews says: "Mark Twain will be included in that group of writers headed by Molière and Cervantes. With the exception of Count Tolstol, Twain was the greatest of recent modern writers, and will be handed down to posterity through the trio of his works 'Huckleberry Finn,' 'Tom Sawyer,' and 'Pudd'nhead Wilson.' Twain is a greater stylist than Stevenson or Thoreau, and his 'Man that Corrupted Hadleyburg' is one of the finest works in English literature." Mark Twain himself wrote a preface to this edition. Brander Matthews has written the biographical criticism of Mark Twain and his work. There are portraits of the author at periods when the different books were in process of writing.

There are beautiful pictures by such artists as Frost, Newell, Smedley, Thulstrup, Clinedinst, Kemble, and Oppen. The binding is in rich red rep silk book cloth, with title labels stamped in gold. The books are printed on white antique wove paper, especially made for this edition. Each volume is of generous size and bulk, 5x7 1/4 inches.

TAX COMMISSION IS PROVIDED FOR

New Machinery Act Drawn With View of Equalizing the Tax Assessment.

Raleigh, Feb. 27.—The machinery bill introduced in the House Friday from the finance committee came back to the House from the state printers in printed form today and it will be taken up and passed at once. There is expected to be some discussion over the best means of assuring some degree of equalization of taxes.

The bill as it is pending in the House provides that the state tax commission, which is the Corporation Commission, shall visit each county and instruct the assessors in their duties. The commission also names by April 1 a tax assessor for each county. This assessor shall devote as much as three months each year to the duties and shall be in direct touch with the township assessors. Then there is the county board of equalization that is to be composed of the county commissioners and the county assessor. The board of equalization is to meet on the second Monday in July, the tax assessors begin their work on May 1 instead of June 1 as in the past. The assessments are to be made as nearly as may be at the true value of the property in money.

The Asphalt Road From Greensboro To High Point.

A gentleman who recently drove out on the asphalt road between here and High Point came back enthusiastic in his praise of the road. He noticed, for one thing, that it was comparatively free from dust, also that it is much better on horses' feet than the harder and less yielding macadam road. He suggested that the city would do well to asphalt the streets leading into Elm street. If these streets received the same treatment given the road to High Point, he said, the main street would be much less dusty than it is.

Debs the Lecturer.

Eugene V. Debs, in lectures and writings, has inspired a new hope in the hearts of the many. Debs says, "The present system of competition, which is the source of nearly every crime and evil tendency, has almost completed its course and is swiftly passing from view, while co-operation, fraught with peace, happiness and prosperity, is no longer a Socialist's dream, but is already upon our very threshold, a living reality, adapting itself to the needs and demands of an advancing humanity."

Debs is one of America's leading orators, a man calculated to fully explain this subject. On the question of Socialism, which is a vital subject of today, he is an authority. He will deliver one lecture at The Grand, March 25, at 8 p. m.
